

PCSO (collar number & name)

has been designated as by the Chief Constable as a Traffic Warden pursuant to Section 95 & 96 of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 and designated as a Community Support Officer pursuant to Section 38 of the Police Reform Act 2002.

- Require name and address person behaving in anti-social manner
- Require name and address for Road Traffic and fixed penalty offences
- Detain a person for 30 minutes to wait for a PC where a correct name and address is not given or believed to be false
- Stop cycles for relevant cycle offences
- Stopping vehicles for test purposes
- Place traffic signs
- Authorise removal of abandoned vehicles
- Direct traffic for purpose of escorting abnormal loads
- Road Checks Sec 4 PACE 1984 & Sec 163 RTA 1988
- Enforcing cordon areas under the Terrorism Act 2000
- Stop/search vehicles in areas authorised under the Terrorism Act 2000
- Dispersal of people involved in ASB or crime
- Require the surrender of property connected to ASB when issued with a dispersal direction
- Enforce PSPO's
- Issue a community protection notice
- Remove children under 16 to place of residence
- Remove truants to designated place
- Stop consumption/surrender of alcohol in designated place
- Photograph persons away from police station that have been detained, arrested or issued with a TOR / fixed penalty notice
- Deal with ASB by community remedy
- Seize vehicles & give warnings where a vehicle is driven off road or dangerously and causing harassment, alarm or distress

- With consent, search for alcohol or tobacco
- Confiscate alcohol and tobacco from children and young people
- Seize and retain controlled drugs
- Whilst lawfully on premises, seize stolen property
- Entry to save life, limb or prevent serious damage
- Enter licensed premises to investigate licensing offences
- Enter relevant premises / inspect documents – Security Industry Authority

Issue Fixed Penalty Notices relating to;

- Cycling on the footway, more than one person on a cycle, failing to comply with a traffic direction, failing to comply with a red light
- Cycling without lights or reflectors
- Failing to stop a cycle for relevant offences
- Failing to stop vehicle for purpose of terrorist roadside checks
- Community protection notices
- Dog Control Orders and dog fouling
- Drivers using a bus or cycle lane, contravening one way direction, opening car door causing danger, excessive noise, use of horn at night or when stationary, failing to switch off an engine
- Graffiti / Fly Posting / Criminal damage / Littering
- Truancy
- Sale, purchase and consumption of alcohol for and by persons under 18
- Behaviour likely to cause harassment /alarm /distress
- Possession and misuse of fireworks
- Breach of a public spaces protection order
- False reports to police and fire services
- Trespass and throwing stones at trains
- Breach of PSPO

Uniform

The Chief Constable has approved the following uniform for Cambridgeshire PCSOs;

- High visibility jacket badged 'Police Community Support Officer'
- Black fleece badged 'Police Community Support Officer'
- Uniform coverings such as body armour generally badged 'Police Community Support Officer'
- Cambridgeshire Constabulary white uniform shirt and blue tie or or blue wicking shirt
- Cambridgeshire Constabulary black trousers
- Blue epaulettes embroidered 'Police Community Support Officer' with collar number and name
- Cap, bowler or turban with solid blue band and Cambridgeshire Constabulary

Creating a safer
Cambridgeshire

Creating a safer
Cambridgeshire

Community Support Officer

DESIGNATION OF POWERS

Section 38 & Schedule 4 Police Reform Act 2002

This designation is to be retained by the PCSO to whom it relates and must be shown on request when using any of the designated powers

The police identity card bearing a photograph of the holder must also be shown

Simon Parr
Chief Constable
Cambridgeshire Constabulary