Induction for Scrutiny Members Working in Peterborough's Hybrid Model

Timing: 1 day or afternoon and evening, or two evenings

Lead: Ed Hammond, Head of Programmes, Local Accountability Kim Sawyer, Director of Governance

Part 1 - Introduction – What is scrutiny?  What is Scrutiny?  Peterborough's Hybrid Model  How we adapt it to the Peterborough model  Followed by Questions and Answers  Break  Part 2 – Work programming Introduction to Work Programming in Scrutiny Work Programming – The Peterborough model  Presentations 10 min presentation from each Director – Highlighting key Challenges, Legislation, and Major Policy Reviews  People and Communities Growth Regeneration and Resources Resources Public Health Governance  Producing the Work Programme - Table work Deciding key themes and work programme For example - Major Policies coming up for early review, Any statutory items from Partners What type of performance reports, annual reports – list and do we need them, Common style performance  Break – Lunch  Part 3 - Implementing the work programme including group work Dos and Don'ts Information needs, sources and how to research  Questions and Answers  Next Steps	,	Lead
Peterborough's Hybrid Model How we adapt it to the Peterborough model Followed by Questions and Answers  Break  Part 2 - Work programming Introduction to Work Programming in Scrutiny Work Programming - The Peterborough model  Presentations 10 min presentation from each Director - Highlighting key Challenges, Legislation, and Major Policy Reviews - People and Communities - Growth Regeneration and Resources - Resources - Public Health - Governance  Producing the Work Programme - Table work Deciding key themes and work programme For example - Major Policies coming up for early review, Any statutory items from Partners What type of performance reports, annual reports - list and do we need them, Common style performance  Break - Lunch  Part 3 - Implementing the work programme including group work - Dos and Don'ts - Information needs, sources and how to research  Questions and Answers
How we adapt it to the Peterborough model  Followed by Questions and Answers  Break  Part 2 - Work programming Introduction to Work Programming in Scrutiny Work Programming -The Peterborough model  Presentations 10 min presentation from each Director - Highlighting key Challenges, Legislation, and Major Policy Reviews - People and Communities - Growth Regeneration and Resources - Public Health - Governance  Producing the Work Programme - Table work Deciding key themes and work programme For example - Major Policies coming up for early review, Any statutory items from Partners What type of performance reports, annual reports - list and do we need them, Common style performance  Break - Lunch  Part 3 - Implementing the work programme including group work - Dos and Don'ts - Information needs, sources and how to research Questions and Answers	,	Ed Hammond
Break  Part 2 - Work programming Introduction to Work Programming in Scrutiny Work Programming - The Peterborough model  Presentations 10 min presentation from each Director - Highlighting key Challenges, Legislation, and Major Policy Reviews - People and Communities - Growth Regeneration and Resources - Resources - Public Health - Governance  Producing the Work Programme - Table work Deciding key themes and work programme For example - Major Policies coming up for early review, Any statutory items from Partners What type of performance reports, annual reports - list and do we need them, Common style performance  Break - Lunch  Part 3 - Implementing the work programme including group work - Dos and Don'ts - Information needs, sources and how to research  Questions and Answers		Kim Sawyer
Break  Part 2 - Work programming Introduction to Work Programming in Scrutiny Work Programming - The Peterborough model  Presentations 10 min presentation from each Director - Highlighting key Challenges, Legislation, and Major Policy Reviews - People and Communities - Growth Regeneration and Resources - Resources - Public Health - Governance  Producing the Work Programme - Table work Deciding key themes and work programme For example - Major Policies coming up for early review, Any statutory items from Partners What type of performance reports, annual reports - list and do we need them, Common style performance  Break - Lunch  Part 3 - Implementing the work programme including group work - Dos and Don'ts - Information needs, sources and how to research  Questions and Answers	How we adapt it to the Peterborough model
Part 2 – Work programming Introduction to Work Programming in Scrutiny Work Programming –The Peterborough model  Presentations 10 min presentation from each Director – Highlighting key Challenges, Legislation, and Major Policy Reviews - People and Communities - Growth Regeneration and Resources - Resources - Public Health - Governance  Producing the Work Programme - Table work Deciding key themes and work programme For example - Major Policies coming up for early review, Any statutory items from Partners What type of performance reports, annual reports – list and do we need them, Common style performance  Break – Lunch  Part 3 - Implementing the work programme including group work - Dos and Don'ts - Information needs, sources and how to research  Questions and Answers	Followed by Questions and Answers
Introduction to Work Programming in Scrutiny Work Programming –The Peterborough model  Presentations 10 min presentation from each Director – Highlighting key Challenges, Legislation, and Major Policy Reviews - People and Communities - Growth Regeneration and Resources - Public Health - Governance  Producing the Work Programme - Table work Deciding key themes and work programme For example - Major Policies coming up for early review, Any statutory items from Partners What type of performance reports, annual reports – list and do we need them, Common style performance  Break – Lunch  Part 3 - Implementing the work programme including group work - Dos and Don'ts - Information needs, sources and how to research  Questions and Answers	Break
10 min presentation from each Director – Highlighting key Challenges, Legislation, and Major Policy Reviews  - People and Communities  - Growth Regeneration and Resources  - Resources  - Public Health  - Governance  Producing the Work Programme - Table work Deciding key themes and work programme For example - Major Policies coming up for early review, Any statutory items from Partners What type of performance reports, annual reports – list and do we need them, Common style performance  Break – Lunch  Part 3 - Implementing the work programme including group work  - Dos and Don'ts - Information needs, sources and how to research  Questions and Answers	Introduction to Work Programming in Scrutiny	Ed Hammond
Deciding key themes and work programme For example - Major Policies coming up for early review, Any statutory items from Partners What type of performance reports, annual reports – list and do we need them, Common style performance  Break – Lunch  Part 3 - Implementing the work programme including group work - Dos and Don'ts - Information needs, sources and how to research  Questions and Answers	10 min presentation from each Director – Highlighting key Challenges, Legislation, and Major Policy Reviews - People and Communities - Growth Regeneration and Resources - Resources - Public Health	Directors
Part 3 - Implementing the work programme including group work  - Dos and Don'ts - Information needs, sources and how to research  Questions and Answers	Deciding key themes and work programme For example - Major Policies coming up for early review, Any statutory items from Partners What type of performance reports, annual reports – list and do we need them, Common style performance	Ed Hammond and group work  - Dos and Don'ts  - Information needs, sources and how to research  Questions and Answers	Break – Lunch
Next Steps	group work  - Dos and Don'ts - Information needs, sources and how to research	Ed Hammond
l l	Next Steps

Attendance

Scrutiny members/CMT/Partners – relevant Cabinet Members/Democratic Services Staff

This page is intentionally left blank