5 Assessment of the planning issues

The main consideration is;

The impact of the proposal on the character of the area

A number of other dwellings along this part of Taverners Road have been rendered or externally insulated in a similar fashion as proposed here, as such render/external insulation is part of the established character of the area. Most of these other rendered dwellings have lost their original decorative features and the result has been detrimental to the character of the wider area.

The front elevation of the dwelling contains architectural features worthy of retention, including a decorative lintel above the side passage and a decorative brick course at eave level. It is important to retain these elements as they make contribution towards the character of the area. Therefore a condition will be appended to the permission requiring these features to be preserved.

The applicant has proposed cream render. This is an acceptable colour choice that will not appear incongruous given the character of the surrounding area.

In light of the above it is therefore considered that the proposal will not unacceptably harm the character of the area. The presence of external insulation/render has become part of the established character of the area and the proposal is unlikely to appear incongruous within the street scene.

The submitted plans show a replacement shop front, this does not form part of the application and has not been evaluated as part of the consideration of this application.

N.B. N.B. Application 17/00228/HHFUL proposes the external insulation of the adjacent property, number 61 Taverners Road.

6 Conclusions

Subject to the imposition of the attached conditions, the proposal is acceptable having been assessed in the light of all material considerations, including weighing against relevant policies of the development plan and specifically:

- The proposals will not unacceptably harm the character of the area. In accordance with policy CS16 of the Peterborough Core Strategy (DPD) 2011 and policy PP2 of the Peterborough Planning Policies (DPD) 2012.
