4. BACKGROUND AND KEY ISSUES

- 4.1 The Participation Team continues to promote opportunities for children and young people through regular newsletters, as well as creating event-specific publications to encourage engagement. Recent newsletters have encouraged young people to get involved in the Coram Voice Creative Writing Competition and apply to be a member of the Family Justice Young Person's Board to share views on the way in which the services within family justice are run and on the support they provide to children, young people and their families.
- 4.2 The Participation Team worked with Cambridgeshire County Council colleagues to organise two engagement activities in the February half term for Children in Care. Young people attended a bowling activity and a roller-skating activity where they had an opportunity to meet other young people in care from across the county.
- 4.3 A virtual activity for Children in Care who live at a distance or who prefer online activities was also arranged in the February half term. The session was titled February Art Fest and included creating doodle art characters and origami animals.
- 4.4 The Children in Care Council (CiCC) continue to meet in person on a monthly basis to work on their projects and consultation requests, meet professionals and give feedback on services. Recruitment to the CiCC is ongoing and we now have twelve members.
- 4.5 The CiCC continues to be consulted by Children's Social Care and other agencies to improve services for Children in Care. Recent consultations have included reviewing Children's Profiles with the Independent Reviewing Service, providing feedback on the accessibility of young people's health questionnaires from Healthwatch and learning more about the new Cambridge Children's Hospital with a visit from their Engagement Team. The CiCC are considering how they can work with the Children's Hospital to raise awareness about young people's mental health needs and the support that is available to them.
- 4.6 The CiCC invited members of the Independent Reviewing Officer (IRO) Team to their January meeting to observe how they conduct their meeting business and get involved in discussions. Members fed back that they like the option of inviting IROs to their meetings, and enjoy the discussions with them, particularly those they have built a relationship with.
- 4.7 The Children in Charge Youth Club continues to meet fortnightly during term time and have recently recruited some new members. The current venue for the Youth Club has a large outdoor space, and children and young people made the most of it by playing games and sports in the space, as well as using the indoor space for art and craft activities.

- 4.8 Attendees at the youth club have been discussing ideas for the 2022 Children in Care Awards Event which has been provisionally planned for July 2022, and have also spent time discussing their ideal Designated Teachers. Recent activities at the youth club have included making a giant patchwork wall art that when put together will represent the children's thoughts on the club. The group have also had fun making windmills, jigsaw puzzles, beaded bracelets and playing team games.
- 4.9 Feedback from the CiCC and youth club has been incorporated into a new draft of the CiC pledge. Children and young people have also told us they would prefer the pledge to be called a promise, so it's clearer to them what its purpose is.
- 4.10 The Young Recruiters Group continue to be actively involved in recruitment and have been asked to take part in interviews of newly qualified social workers for the ASYE (Assessed and Supported Year in Employment) in March.
- 4.11 The Young Inspectors continue to work on their Supervised Contact Centre inspections across Peterborough and Cambridgeshire, with the next inspection dates planned in March. across Peterborough and Cambridgeshire. The group will then meet to write their report, detailing their recommendations on how to ensure the supervised contact centres are meeting the needs of the children and young people that use them.
- 4.12 In January, the Young Trainers group delivered training to prospective Foster Carers as part of the Fostering Team's Skills to Foster course. The young people were supported by the Participation Team to facilitate an activity looking at Foster Carer skills and attributes and went through scenarios with the group on how to help young people settle into new placements. This is the third time the group have facilitated this training. Young people later commented that the carers had asked good questions, showing they had really reflected on the messages from children and young people within the training presentation. The Young Trainers have been invited to facilitate another Skills to Foster training course in March.
- 4.13 Members of the Peterborough and Cambridgeshire CiCCs attended a recording studio afternoon in the February half term to record audio for their ideal worker animated video joint project. The CiCC members also chose the animation style they would like for the videos, settling on digital animation rather than line drawing or a more traditional cartoon style. The audio is now being edited after which the artists will begin storyboarding the videos.
- 4.14 The new PCC Care Leaver Forum (CLF) had their first meeting in January where they were joined by the Cambridgeshire CLF. They brainstormed their group aims and focuses and received advice from their Cambridgeshire counterparts on how to be an effective CLF. The group were also consulted with on Pathway Planning and preparing young people for leaving care by the IRO Service Manager.
