

Walton & Paston
1073 Lincoln Road

Local List Ref:	WP3
Group value:	No
Selection criteria:	A1 B2
Construction date:	early 19 th c
Use:	Residential

Reason for selection

Possibly part of an old Manor House site. Property retains many original features and is locally important.

Description

Irregular plan. Complex two storey building with additions. Built of coursed stone and brick under complex hipped welsh slate and clay tile roofs. Small outshut to north under lean-to-roof with single timber sash window with margin lights and coloured glazing to margin lights.

Timber entrance door case with a flat hood. Further extensions to core building with two storey element. Original timber part glazed door with fanlight over. Right of door single undivided timber sash window. Ashlar chimney stack to front elevation. Single stone buttress next to single storey, slightly curved, outshut with narrow slit single light window under a Collyweston slate roof.

-
- 1805 Inclosure Map: shows no buildings in this location
 - PA 21 March 1868 p2 (col 4); auction advert for “Walton Cottage” [so standing then ?]

Only surviving one of three or four superior residences to be found at one time in this area. As the land was Copyhold of the Manor it ought to be possible to work out roughly when built. Very possibly the one-time home of EC Gordon-England, Chief of Sage’s Aircraft Division during WW1.

This page is intentionally left blank