These premises have in the last two years failed three underage test purchasing of alcohol operations.

The dates of the failures and actions taken are as follows :

- 16 April 2009 - PND issued to the seller who was also the Designated Premises Supervisor (Mr Ishtiaq Ahmed)
- 3 June 2010 - PND issued to the seller
- 3 September 2010 - Still under investigation

It appears from the above failures that both the Premises License Holder and the Designated Premises Supervisor (DPS) have been unable to uphold the three Licensing objectives mentioned earlier.

On each of the first 2 failed test purchases support was given to the DPS and Premises Licence Holder by both Police and Council Officers. This support included issuing the DPS with a 'staff training' pack and the advice to adopt a 'Challenge 25' age check policy. Both these measures were introduced at the store and were in operation when the third failure occurred.

On investigation of the 3rd failure it was found that the seller had not completed the training pack that had been supplied. The 'Challenge 25' policy (ie that if a person looks under the age of 25 they must provide identification to prove they are 18 or over) was in place and signs displaying this were evident.

As the premises had failed 2 test purchases in a period of 3 months they are also currently under investigation for an offence of ' Persistently selling alcohol to children'.

These continued failures constitute a danger to children and young people and also increase the likelihood of issues directly associated with anti-social behaviour and criminality.

I would therefore suggest following action:-

- A revocation of their alcohol license
